After a thorough study of the s proposal by members of my staff it was concluded that it is not feasible to implement it at this time. I am pleased to say, however, that we can use the services 25X1 of the _____in other matters which relate to his special qualifi-cations and have offered him employment for at least a year in that capacity. He expressed pleasure with this arrangement and indicated that he will agospt our offer. Thus, I feel that this has worked out to everyone's satisfaction. I regret not having seen you during your visit to Washington. Perhaps a future trip will afford us an opportunity to meet. Sincerely. Allen W.
